- The Historic Centre of Lima contains much of Lima's colonial architecture which is known to be arguably the best in South America.
- Ica allows for an incredible journey to the Paracas Reserves where you can learn about one of the most important pre-Inca civilizations.
- Arequipa-It is often said that the city's name comes from the Quechua phrase "Ari, quepay" which means "Yes, here" which is said to have been the response of the Fourth Inca - Mayta Capac - upon seeing the site of the great city. Today,
- Puno is the capital of folkloric Peru. The city is most known for the Fiesta de la Virgen de la Candelaria, Lake Titicaca, the highest navigable lake in the world, and Uros Island.
- No one knows exactly why Machu Picchu was built at the height of the Incan Empire. It is known that the Spaniards never made it this far, because it's still standing.
- Puerto Maldonado is a small jungle town in the south of Peru, close to the Bolivian and Brazilian borders.
